

About Pleasantville:

The City of Pleasantville is known for its vibrant, growing community. Pleasantville is the third largest city in Marion County. The city and its citizens are proud of the community's excellent quality of life, which includes cultural and recreational amenities, and a great school system. In addition, Pleasantville receives wide recognition for the beauty of its integrated park, living spaces, and economic opportunities, making it a desirable place to live, work, and play. Logistically Pleasantville is about a 25 min drive from Des Moines or Pella.

Pleasantville operates under a Council-Manager form of government, with a five-person elected City Council focused on legislative and policymaking body, with day-to-day operations the responsibility of the appointed City Manager. Under the supervision of the City Administrator.

The Department:

At the Pleasantville Police Department, we demonstrate excellence by modeling the CORE 4 Values of Integrity, Respect, Professionalism, and Customer Service. Pleasantville Police is proactive in law enforcement and focuses on community policing. Officers generally work a 12-hour shift with rotating weekends. Typically, the department responds to around 1900 calls for service annually. One officer is assigned to a School Resource Officer part of their shift. The department has two patrol vehicles which are both SUV's. Each officer is well-equipped and has attended several training events each year. The Pleasantville Police Department is dedicated to maintaining a safe and secure community through proactive law enforcement, continuous officer training, and a strong commitment to community policing. Our small, yet highly trained and equipped team works tirelessly to respond to the needs of Pleasantville residents, ensuring a high quality of life for all.
